

Bromfield Library Subject Guide

Nursing and Health Resources

Most books relating to Nursing and Health are found in the R section of the Library's circulating and reference collections.

This includes books on medicine, dentistry, pharmacology, mental health, and nursing.

Web Site Address: <http://library.mansfield.ohio-state.edu>

R Medicine

- RC Internal Medicine
- RE Ophthalmology
- RJ Pediatrics
- RK Dentistry
- RM Pharmacology
- RT Nursing

Databases (Use to Find Articles)

From the Bromfield Library home page, click on Other Research Databases, then choose By Name, OR choose By Subject and then choose "Medicine & Health" to find the following resources:

- Academic Search Premier
- Access Science
- Alt Health Watch
- CancerLit
- CINAHL
- Clinical Pharmacology
- Electronic Journal Center
- Health Source: Consumer
- Health Source: Nursing
- MEDLINE
- PsycINFO
- ProQuest Nursing

Selected Reference Books

The Library has many reference books relating to nursing and health. Here are just a few. Use the Library's online catalog to find specific books on your topic.

- AHFS Drug Information* RS125.A5622
- CRC Desk Reference for Nutrition* QP141.B523
- Dorland's Illustrated Medical Dictionary* R121 .D7
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders: DSM-IV* RC455.2.C4 D54
- Encyclopedia of Public Health* RA423.E53
- Gale Encyclopedia of Cancer* RC254.5 .G353
- Gale Encyclopedia of Medicine* RC41 .G35
- Gale Encyclopedia of Mental Disorders* RC437 .G35
- Gale Encyclopedia of Nursing and Allied Health* RT21 .G353
- Genetic Disorders Sourcebook* RB155.5 G455
- From the Health Reference Series from Omnigraphics*
- Mosby's Nursing Drug Reference* RM138 .S55

See Back of Sheet for Web Sites

Web Resources for Topics in Nursing and Health

American Medical Association

<http://www.ama-assn.org>

There is an option on this site of choosing information sources for physicians or patients.

American Nurses Association

<http://www.nursingworld.org>

Provides access to the Online Journal of Issues in Nursing, links to other nursing associations, as well as information on careers and ethics.

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

<http://www.cdc.gov>

Profiles of diseases and health risks, prevention information, statistics.

Free Medical Journals Online

<http://www.freemedicaljournals.com/>

Full-text access to some medical journals that are available for free on the Internet.

Healthfinder

<http://www.healthfinder.gov>

A consumer-oriented site produced by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with information on health issues and prescription drugs.

Health on the Net Foundation (HON)

<http://www.hon.ch>

Established in 1994 to monitor the reliability of medical and health information on the Web.

National Institutes of Health

<http://www.nih.gov>

Access to some NIH databases, a searchable directory of health organizations, and more.

National Library of Medicine

<http://www.nlm.nih.gov>

Access to a free version of MEDLINE (with links to the OhioLINK Electronic Journal Center articles where possible).

National Institute of Mental Health

<http://www.nimh.nih.gov>

A source of information on specific mental disorders, their diagnosis and treatment.

National Women's Health Information Center

<http://www.4woman.org>

Provides links to Federal and private information resources related to women's health.

Office of Minority Health

<http://www.omhrc.gov>

Provides extensive information around disparities in the health policies and programs affecting racial and ethnic populations in the U.S.

Ohio Board of Nursing

<http://www.state.oh.us/nur/>

Information on licensure, educational programs, and Ohio regulations.

Pan American Health Organization

<http://www.paho.org>

Profiles of country health issues.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

<http://www.os.dhhs.gov>

WebMD

<http://www.webmd.com>

A consumer-oriented site with information on a range of medical topics. Choose the link for WebMD Health for current information on health issues.

World Health Organization

<http://www.who.ch>

World statistics, reports, and news related to health topics